GENERAL BASES:

- The tournament will be 9 rounds Swiss system.
- Time control will be 90 minutes for each player and 30 seconds increment for each move.
- Pairings will be made with a computer program and no claims will be allowed in this respect, except error in manual results entering of the results.
- The tiebreaker system will be drawn after the last game of the last round among the following tiebreaker systems: Total Bucholz FIDE, Bucholz -1 FIDE(minus the worst score) and Bucholz -2 FIDE (subtracting the two worst scores). If the tie persisted between two or more players we would proceed to make a drawing to determine the final classification.
- The tournament will be valid for Internacional Norms, FIDE and FEDA Elo ratings.
- Rest days (BYE). Byes are free days that any player can request, always in writing or by email. Each player can request a maximum of 3 BYES before the seventh round. BYES requested for the first round must be formalized via email before the registration deadline and will always have to be validated by the organizer. Byes corresponding to the following five rounds (2nd to 6th) must be signed before the end of the first round. In the requested round BYE player will not be paired and will be awarded ½ point.
- Players who have not paid their registration fees before completion of the first round, will not be paired for the next one.
- Players who, for whatever reason, did not appear on the latest list of FIDE ELO and previously had FIDE ELO, will be considered their ranking, only for prizes, according to the last list where they appeared
- Participants will be required an adequate clothing both in the Hall of Game and Closing Ceremony.
- Registration in the tournament implies that participants authorize the publication of their personal data and image (photos, videos, etc.) in media (list of players, standings, pairings, games, web, television, etc).
- Any claim will be formalized in writing and at most one hour after the fact happened. The claimant must submit the form with a deposit of € 25 which will be returned if the Appeals Committee gives him the reason for his request.
- The Appeal Committee shall consist of five members: three members and two supply members. It will be chaired by the Tournament Director or the person designated by the Director, and the four highest-rated player of the tournament: The first two as members and the other two as supply members.
- Sofia's rule: It is prohibited to arrange tables with the opponent before move 30, without the consent of the referee or his deputy (in no case a player of the tournament).

- The use or possession of mobile telephones or other electronic means in the playing hall during the session will not be allowed. Possession or use thereof shall entail the loss of the game.
- Once the game is finished, players must leave the pieces as found at the beginning of the game.
- The tournament will be governed by these bases and updated FIDE and FEDA Regulation.
